JIM LEAVITT

Head Coach • 70-43 (.619) • 11th Season

Jim Leavitt is working on a new theory. It states, "You can never leave home again."

With apologies to Thomas Wolfe, Leavitt has already proven that you can indeed go home again, having returned to his Tampa Bay roots to oversee the most successful start-up of a college football program in decades. In just 10 years, Leavitt turned a non-existent program into a Bowl team when the Bulls played in the 2005 Meineke Car Care Bowl. Just one year later, Leavitt and the Bulls earned the program's first-ever Bowl victory with a 24-7 win over East Carolina in the PapaJohns.com Bowl.

And on two occasions in the past three years when prominent programs showed interest, Leavitt has solidified his commitment to USF with a new contract. On November 30, 2005, Leavitt agreed to a seven-year, $7 million deal to stay with the Bulls. That came just over two years after he had signed a new contract through 2009.

At this point, Leavitt is the alpha and omega of USF football. He is the only coach the school has ever had as he was presented the job on December 12, 1995. He then went about starting football from scratch and leading the program from an inaugural season in 1997 to I-A status in 2001, Conference USA in 2003 and now the BIG EAST and BCS football in 2005.

Having been "forced" to leave the state to play collegiate football and baseball in the mid-1970s, the new contract solidifies Leavitt's longstanding declaration that he has no intentions of leaving again. When he returned home in 1996 to lead the fledgling USF program, it was for the first time since he left for Missouri in 1974 and he has been emphatic in his desire to stay.

"I can see myself coaching at South Florida until I retire," says Leavitt. "Then I can buy season tickets and sit in the stands and watch the Bulls play on Saturdays."

After the 10 seasons of USF Football, Leavitt has proven only further that he was indeed the right man for the right job at the right time. Charged with fast tracking a program from non-existence to Division I-A football in just five years time, Leavitt has led the program to an impressive 70-43 record. A mega-success in the first four years at the I-AA level (24 straight weeks in national polls), Leavitt and crew moved to I-A in 2001 and went 8-3, including a 35-26 win at Pittsburgh.

In 2002, his team finished 9-2 and seriously contended for a Bowl Game, even as an Independent. The Bulls are also received votes in both major polls and ranked 18th in the final New York Times Computer Poll, one of several polls utilized by the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) at the time. In fact, USF ranked among the top 30 in each of the computer polls utilized by the BCS, and the program also had a 21-game home winning streak that extended into the 2003 season.

Having blazed yet another milestone in directing the program into its first-ever season in Conference USA in 2003, Leavitt and his squad now move into the BIG EAST after two C-USA seasons. Along with four wins against C-USA foes in 2002, a year before becoming a league member, the Bulls were 12-8 against C-USA opponents.

Picked to finish seventh in the eight-team BIG EAST in USF's debut season of 2005, Leavitt led the Bulls to a major win over then-ninth ranked Louisville and the Bulls finished third in the league.

The story in 2006 is no less impressive as Leavitt and his staff molded a team that improved every week and concluded its regular season with an eye-opening 24-19 win at seventh ranked West Virginia, before the history making Bowl win in Birmingham, Ala.

Leavitt's success has extended beyond league play as he reached his 50th career win faster than all but five active I-A coaches. Leavitt picked up his 50th victory in his 75th game, placing him behind Bob Stoops (Oklahoma), Philip Fulmer (Tennessee), John Robinson (UNLV), Joe Paterno (Penn State) and Lloyd Carr (Michigan).

Leavitt's profile foretold of the success to come at USF, even as he was hired for the job on December 12, 1995, exactly one week following his 39th birthday.

"Leading the USF football program is much more than just a job," said Leavitt when he was hired. "And it is much more than a task at hand. It is something that is a major part of my life, and it will always be that. I am going to do everything I can to build a program without illusions, without cutting corners, doing things the right way and bringing in coaches with character."

Leavitt also speaks a lot about the "being home" factor.

"Shortly after I was hired, I was speaking with Brigham Young coach LaVell Edwards," recalls Leavitt. "He told me that throughout his years at BYU, he had plenty of opportunities to move on to what some might perceive to be better coaching jobs. But, he told me, 'I never left, and you know why I didn't? It's because this is my home.'

"He told me, 'Jim, you'll never want to leave the (USF) job, because you're going home.'"

Home was a long time coming for Leavitt. It took 23 years and wound through Missouri, Iowa and Kansas. It began in 1974, when the St. Petersburg resident, and a star for Dixie Hollins High School, went off to Missouri, where he was a two-sport standout in football and baseball, earning all-Big 8 in both sports. He also won a Big 8 batting title in 1977 with a .386 average.

Miscellaneous

- Attended Dixie Hollins High School, St. Petersburg, Fla.
- Head Track & Field Coach at Morningside College; Produced five All-Americans

Upon graduation in 1978, he stayed at Missouri as a graduate assistant, earning a master's degree in 1979. After two seasons as a graduate assistant, Leavitt moved to the State of Iowa, where he was named defensive coordinator at the University of Dubuque in 1980, spending two years in that position, before moving to Morningside College from 1982-87, also as defensive coordinator.

At both Dubuque and Morningside, Leavitt was instrumental in transforming the program to success. The Dubuque team had 40 consecutive losing seasons, but Leavitt helped the squad to an 8-2-1 record and the Division III playoffs in his first season.

The situation at Morningside was similar with a long track record of losing seasons. Even in Leavitt's first two seasons there, the squad finished 2-9 and 1-10, leading to the entire staff - except Leavitt - serving up its resignation. Leavitt assumed interim head coach duties for six months prior to the 1984 season, including the recruitment of that year's freshmen class.

It was then that Leavitt began to rely heavily on home again, even if he couldn't be there. He decided to aggressively recruit the Sunshine State, loading the Morningside recruiting classes with Florida talent. It helped turn the program to 6-5 and then 7-3-1 in 1984 and 1985, the first back-to-back winning seasons in the 28 years.

Leavitt also coached the track team at Morningside, a program that had not scored a single point in its conference meet in three years when he took over. In Leavitt's three seasons, his athletes won five All-America honors, 13 conference titles and set new school records in virtually every event. In 1988, he coached a 4x100 relay team that finished fourth in the nation and he won North Central Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Following his five seasons with Morningside, Leavitt went full force after a Ph.D. in psychology, something he had been pursuing sporadically since 1982. By 1989, he simply needed to complete his dissertation, when Iowa head coach Hayden Fry offered him a graduate position. With the coaching bug, Leavitt took the opportunity and fast tracked a career in I-A football coaching.

After just one season with Iowa, Leavitt was named to Bill Snyder's staff at Kansas State in 1990, when that program had just been tabbed the "worst in America" by Sports Illustrated. Snyder, who was a coaching disciple of Iowa's Fry, was in his second season at K-State, when he asked Leavitt to coach the linebackers.

The following year, Leavitt was promoted to co-defensive coordinator and he was instrumental in building a defense that joined Snyder's offense in a quick and effective turnaround that had Sports Illustrated calling K-State the most improved team in the nation by 1993. And now, Kansas State has assumed a regular spot in the nation's top 10.

In Leavitt's five years at Kansas State, the Wildcats were 44-23-1 compared to 22-86-1 in the 1980s. In his final three seasons, Kansas State joined Florida, Florida State, Nebraska and Penn State as the only teams in the nation with three consecutive nine-win seasons. During those three years, Kansas State was 27-8-1.

And perhaps most impressively, Leavitt and Bob Stoops designed a defense that went from 93rd in the nation in 1990 to number one in their final season of 1995.

The common denominator for success at each of Leavitt's stops has been an unyielding commitment to old-fashioned hard work.

"Nobody but nobody is going to match his work ethic and his energy," Leavitt's baseball coach at Missouri once said of him.

While that ethic has followed Leavitt everywhere, a story from Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa is as good as any in proving the point.

As the defensive coordinator in 1985, Leavitt drove from Iowa to St. Petersburg, Fla. to meet a recruit at Lakewood High School for a 9 p.m. meeting. Leavitt pulled a projector out of the trunk of his car, groped in the dark to find a power outlet outside the gym, threw a beach towel over a chair and proceeded to show the recruit Morningside game films. In the two weeks surrounding that one visit, Leavitt put 2,500 miles on his Chrysler LeBaron.

The Lakewood recruit ended up a starter at Morningside and never regretted following Leavitt back to Sioux City.

Leavitt doesn't hide the fact that he has taken a carbon copy of the building strategies at both Iowa and Kansas State in building the start-from-scratch program at USF.

"I would say I use a lot of things that we did at Kansas State and Iowa as far as the structure of our program," says Leavitt. "But we really didn't use anybody as a model because there really was no model. We were starting a program and the one thing we knew was that our track was going to be fast."

As successful as Kansas State and Iowa were in implementing their strategies, Leavitt can't help but smile a little bit wider now that he's implementing it himself in his own backyard.

Leavitt and his family first made their backyard in St. Petersburg, Fla. - just 40 minutes from the USF campus - when he was nine years old. Born in Harlingen, Tex., December 5, 1956, Leavitt's father was an air force pilot, and the family's move to St. Petersburg was the fifth and final stop. In fact, his parents still live in the family home.

A two-sport star in baseball and football (he played quarterback and safety) at Dixie Hollins High School, he graduated in 1974 and went on to Missouri, where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1978 and a master's degree in 1979.

Leavitt has a 10-year-old daughter, Deandra.

CAPE CORAL, FLA.
CAPE CORAL HIGH SCHOOL

Enters spring season as backup to Danny Verpaele at free safety...Athleticism and experience gained last season make him a factor...Arrived in camp as a true freshman quarterback last year, but coaches immediately recognized his athleticism and wanted to get him on the field as quickly as possible and opted to move him to safety...SOUTH FLORIDA: 2006 - Played in nine games, including as a backup safety and as nickel back...Also a prominent special teams player...Made two tackles...CAPE CORAL HIGH SCHOOL: Threw for over 5,000 career yards and broke all school passing records...Ranked 67th top prospect in Florida by Orlando Sentinel...Threw for 325 yards and four touchdowns on 18 of 23 passing to lead his team from a 16-point deficit to defeat Gulf Coast 37-30...Class 5A honorable mention all-state as a junior and senior...Three-time all-area player...Also an accomplished basketball player, he averaged over 16.3 points, 6.6 rebounds and 2.9 steals in 2005-06...Scored over 1,000 career points...Had six 20-plus scoring games including a high of 28 against South Ft. Myers.

DELBERT ALVARADO
SOPHOMORE
PLACEKICKER/PUNTER
6-0, 175
TAMPA, FLA.
ROBINSON HIGH SCHOOL

The incumbent placekicker, he could also look to compete for the punting job, which he had originally won at the outset of his true freshman season last year...Showed character and poise in responding to a disappointing shot at punting duties early in season and eventually won starting job as the placekicker...SOUTH FLORIDA - 2006: Kicked a BIG EAST record 56-yard field goal in win over Syracuse...5-of-9 on field goal attempts...2-of-2 from inside 30 yards and 2-of-3 from 40-plus yards, including the 56-yarder...Only miss from 40 or more was a 51-yard attempt at Louisville...Also had a 47-yard field goal in the Syracuse win, which matched his longest ever in high school...10 of 11 on PATs...Had punted 10 times...9 of his 10 punts came in the first three games and his 10th was from a field goal position...Averaged 34.3 yards before Justin Teachey took over...ROBINSON HIGH SCHOOL: First team all-county in Tampa Tribune and St. Petersburg Times...Ranked 44th best player in Tampa Bay area by St. Petersburg Times...3 of 5 on field goals, including a school-record 47-yard effort...Added 58 PATs for 67 points to lead all kickers in Hillsborough County...In addition to kicking and punting for Robinson High, he played in the Marching Band (trombone)... As a junior he was 5 of 7 on field goals and had a 40.5 punt average...63 of 64 on PATs that year...Second team all-state as a junior punter...Coached by Mike DePue...Played Club Soccer for Tampa Knights Blackwatch.

JARRIETT BUIE
SENIOR
DEFENSIVE END
6-4, 240
TAMPA, FLA.
ARMWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

Fast and athletic, he'll head into spring as the top candidate at left end...A highly sought after recruit, after a hard luck start to his career, he made his first appearance for the Bulls in 2006 and progressed throughout the year... SOUTH FLORIDA - 2006: Had a season-best five tackles vs. Rutgers and finished the season with 17 tackles, including a sack at UCF...Played in 12 games, starting four straight between the Kansas and North Carolina games (also Rutgers and UConn)...2005: After sitting out 2004 rookie year for academics, coaches were anxious to give him an opportunity right away...Broken foot in preseason camp ended his season...He did dress for the final few games, but did not see action.

BEN BUSBEE
SOPHOMORE
TIGHT END
6-3, 240
MOBILE, ALA.
McGILL-TOOLEN HIGH SCHOOL

Offseason shoulder surgery will keep him from spring workouts, but he figures prominently in the battle for the tight end job this coming fall... SOUTH FLORIDA - 2006: Played through a painful shoulder injury right through the Papajohns.com Bowl before having postseason surgery...Effective blocker in spot duty at tight end...Made first career catch on crucial play in West Virginia game to pick up a first down at the nine yard line to set up what would be USF's game-winning touchdown...14 yards on the reception...Also had a catch for a two-point conversion at Louisville (does not count as a reception in stats)...2005: Utilized his red-shirt season while working at tight end and some at long snapper.

NICK CAPOGNA
SENIOR
OFFENSIVE CENTER
6-3, 275
CLEARWATER, FLA.
CLEARWATER CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

A converted tight end, he filled a huge void with the loss of starter John Miller at center in 2006...Steady and smart...SOUTH FLORIDA - 2006: Named the team's offensive lineman of the year...Started all 13 games at center and excelled in a leadership role...Helped pave the way for record-setting run and pass performances by quarterback Matt Grothe...2005: Played on PAT and field goal teams and also saw spot duty as a tight end and extra blocker on short yardage plays...2004: Saw action in 10 games, primarily on the line for special teams protection... 2003: Utilized red-shirt season.

JARED CARNES
SENIOR
OFFENSIVE TACKLE
6-7, 310
ST. PETERSBURG, FLA.
ST. PETERSBURG CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

Heads into spring campaign as backup left tackle...A transfer from Division II Concord College in West Virginia in 2004, he initially won a starting tackle job last season before playing spot duty there as well as playing on PAT and field goals protection units...Size is a tremendous asset at tackle...Initially looked at as a tight end prospect...A local Tampa Bay area product...SOUTH FLORIDA - 2006: Started first two games at left tackle and played in 12 of the 13 games during the season...2005: Played in two early season games against Florida A&M and UCF...2004: Sat out NCAA-mandated transfer season.

RICHARD CLEBERT
SENIOR
NOSE TACKLE
6-1, 295
MIAMI, FLA.
EDISON HIGH SCHOOL

Along with Allen Cray, he provides the most experience to the front four...Joins Cray and fellow veteran Woody George in competing at nose tackle this spring...He was in and out of the lineup last season with a groin injury...Experience is an asset with nine starts among his 24 career appearances...SOUTH FLORIDA - 2006: Started at tackle in two of the first three games before having to sit three consecutive games with the groin injury...Returned to see action in final seven games, but did not re-gain starting role...22 tackles, including a sack and seven QB pressures...Also had a fumble recovery, that coming in week two against Florida International, when he also had his one sack...Had 12 of his 21 tackles in the first three games, prior to his injury...2005: Started at nose tackle in each of the last seven games, while playing in all 12 games...16 tackles with 3.5 for losses and 0.5 sacks...Also had a forced fumble at Rutgers...2004: Projected as a red-shirt, but saw action in three of the final five games of the season with injuries on the defensive line and displayed plenty of promise...Had four tackles, including two for losses, one of those on a sack at UAB (Nov. 3).

ALLEN CRAY
SENIOR
DEFENSIVE TACKLE
6-0, 295
LAKE CITY, FLA.
COLUMBIA HIGH SCHOOL

A platoon starter as a freshman and sophomore, he started the first eight games last season...Has 18 career starts, the most on USF's front four...SOUTH FLORIDA - 2006: Played in all 13 games, starting the first eight before Woody George and Aaron Harris came on in the middle of the front four...Still played a large role, evidenced by 5.5 sacks and a total of eight tackles for loss...Led all interior linemen in both categories, along with his 31 tackles...Season-high nine tackles at UCF with one of his sacks...Had two sacks a week later at Kansas, when he also had a fumble recovery...2005: Opened the first five games at nose tackle, while splitting time with Richard Clebert...Had 13 tackles including 1.5 for losses...2004: Made an impression as a redshirt freshman, starting five games and playing in eight...Finished with 11 tackles, four of those for losses...After not playing in the season opener, he had a season-high three tackles at South Carolina (Sept. 18), including two for losses...Sack came vs. East Carolina (Nov. 13)...2003: Used his red-shirt season.

MARC DILE
JUNIOR
OFFENSIVE TACKLE
6-4, 305
MIAMI, FLA.
EDISON HIGH SCHOOL

Enters spring as starting left tackle...Perhaps USF's top offensive lineman, he has played both right and left tackle...Considered the unit's leader...Proved himself as a redshirt freshman in 2005, gaining valuable experience in a platoon starter role...Has strong blend of speed, size and agility...SOUTH FLORIDA - 2006: Starts limited to seven by injury, but he was able to play in all 13 games...Started four of the first five games at right tackle and the final three games - at Louisville, at West Virginia and vs. East Carolina in the Papajohns.com Bowl on the left side...2005: A redshirt freshman, he performed superbly as a platoon starter at both tackle spots...Opened season at Penn State (Sept. 3) as the starter at left tackle and moved to right side a week later vs. Florida A&M (Sept. 10)...Started three more games late in the year on right side for a total of five starts and 12 games played...Played considerable number of snaps whether starting or not, splitting time with Walter Walker...2004: Utilized his red-shirt season.
