O - Outdoor only
SUMMER RESULTS
Freshmen Anika Hibbard and Cara Sherman competed at the USATF Junior Outdoor Championships in Clovis, California. Hibbard tied for 10th in the high jump, while Sherman placed ninth in the 5,000m and 10th in the 3,000m. Grace Claxton qualified for the semifinals of the 400m hurdles at the 2016 Olympic Summer Games in Rio de Janeiro. She placed 11th overall, setting a new personal best of 55.85.

SUMMER PREVIEW
The collegiate season is over, yet the Great Danes will have a handful of representatives competing internationally throughout the summer. Myles Banfield will compete for Canada, Grace Claxton for Puerto Rico, Matthew Campbell for Jamaica, Alexander Bowen Jr. for Panama, and Stephanie Osuji will compete for Nigeria. Additionally, Anika Hibbard and Cara Sherman will compete at the USATF Junior National Championships, and Matthew LeLievre will attempt to qualify for Canada’s World Junior Championships team.

OUTDOOR NATIONALS
UAlbany had two representatives competing in the NCAA Division I Outdoor Championships at the University of Oregon. Grace Claxton competed first in the women’s 400m IH, placing ninth overall, earning second-team All-America status. Matthew Campbell competed next in the men’s high jump, placing seventh overall with a new personal best mark of 7-02.25, earning first-team All-America status.

EAST PRELIMS
Ten Great Danes earned qualifying berths to the NCAA Division I East Preliminary Championships, and nine made the trip to the University of North Florida in Jacksonville. Matthew Campbell (HJ) and Grace Claxton (400m IH) placed highly enough in their events to qualify for NCAA Championships. Campbell set a new personal best mark (7-01.50), as did Claxton (55.90), breaking her own school record in the event yet again. Her time also satisfied the qualifying parameters to compete for her native Puerto Rico in this summer’s Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro. Claxton is the first UAlbany women’s track & field representative to compete in the Olympics. Additional personal bests came from Myles Banfield and Taariq Jones (400m).

WINDING DOWN
While most of the seniors on the team attended their commencement ceremony, their teammates visited Princeton University for the IC4A and ECAC Outdoor Championships. The women placed third overall as a team, fielding the lone Great Dane event champion, Grace Claxton, who won the 400m hurdles in 57.58. The men placed eighth as a team with 35 points, tied with Iona.

4 - FOR - 4
For the eighth-consecutive season, the men and women swept the America East Outdoor Championships. The men won their 12th in a row, scoring 219 points, 74 more than runner-up UNBC. The women had to work harder for their eighth-straight outdoor title, narrowly defeating runner-up New Hampshire 173-165. The men’s individual champions include Robert Harris III (100m), Jaymen Teemer (200m), Sidney Gibbons (110m HH), Kingsley Ogbonna (HJ), Matthew Campbell (TJ), Jonathan Eustache (DT, HT), the 4x400m relay, and Taariq Jones (400m). For Jones, it was his seventh-consecutive America East 400m title between indoor and outdoor championships. The only time he hasn’t won the event in his UAlbany career was his first ever indoor championship in 2013. On the women’s side, Stephanie Osuji (100m), Grace Claxton (200m, 400m), Niamani Morrison (100m HH), Anika Hibbard (HJ), Solène Bastien (TJ) and the 4x100m relay won event titles. After the meet concluded, individual awards went to Jones (Coaches’ Award, Elite 18), Claxton (Coaches’ Award, shared with New Hampshire’s Elinor Purrier), and the men’s coaching staff. The two outdoor championships completed the sweep of all four America east team titles for the Great Danes in 2016.
The University at Albany saw its first-ever champion at the Penn Relays, when senior Grace Claxton won the women’s 400m hurdles on the meet’s opening day. Her time of 56.69 surpassed her own school record. Not to be outdone, senior Alexander Bowen Jr. became UAlbany’s second-ever Penn Relays Champion, winning the men’s high jump in 7-02.25. In between, the Great Danes qualified its first two relays ever to Championship of America finals at Penn. The women’s 4x100m team of Stephanie Osuji, Chanel Smith, Claxton, and Taahira Butterfield placed sixth in the championship in a school-record 45.80, also winning the ECAC division. The men’s 4x400m team of Jason Tomlinson, Momobou Jobe, Myles Banfield, and Taahira Jones also placed sixth in the championship in 3:09.00. Additionally, the Great Danes fielded competitors at RPI’s Capital District Classic, claiming victory in 11 events as a final tune-up before conference championships.

The University at Albany hosted the 32nd Spring Classic, the Great Danes’ only home meet of the outdoor season. The meet featured over 650 athletes representing 16 clubs and 20 schools from around the country, and beyond. Anika Hibbard continued her hot streak in the high jump, improving her own school record for the second consecutive meet, clearing a height of 5-09.25, which also set a meet and facility record. Jessica Donohue made her season debut, placing second in the 5,000m in 17:18.73, a personal best which moves her into ninth place in UAlbany history. Finally, the team traveled to Vermont for a one-on-one dual meet with the Catamounts. The meet offered an opportunity for many of UAlbany’s student-athletes to compete in secondary events. Anika Hibbard set a school record in the high jump with a mark of 5-08.75, breaking Rochelle Reid’s record of 5-08.00. Next, Cara Sherman trekked cross-country to compete in the 10,000m at the Mt. SAC Relays. Her time of 36:12.50 ranks fourth all-time in school history. Finally, the team traveled to regional rival Connecticut, for the Huskies’ second annual Northeast Challenge. The men and women both finished in second place behind host Connecticut. The Great Danes earned a number of top 10 all-time performances, but the highlight of the day came in the high jump, where Hibbard improved upon her own school record set four days earlier with a mark of 5-08.75, and Alexander Bowen Jr., Matthew Campbell, and Kingsley Ogbonna each cleared 7-01.00, a personal best mark for Campbell and Ogbonna.

A busy week for the Great Danes saw three competitions contested over a period of five days. First, the men and women visited the University of Vermont for a one-on-one dual meet with the Catamounts. The meet featured over 650 athletes representing 16 clubs and 20 schools from around the country, and beyond. Anika Hibbard continued her hot streak in the high jump, improving her own school record for the second consecutive meet, clearing a height of 5-09.25, which also set a meet and facility record. SAC Relays. Her time of 36:12.50 ranks fourth all-time in school history. Finally, the team traveled to regional rival Connecticut, for the Huskies’ second annual Northeast Challenge. The men and women both finished in second place behind host Connecticut. The Great Danes earned a number of top 10 all-time performances, but the highlight of the day came in the high jump, where Hibbard improved upon her own school record set four days earlier with a mark of 5-08.75, and Alexander Bowen Jr., Matthew Campbell, and Kingsley Ogbonna each cleared 7-01.00, a personal best mark for Campbell and Ogbonna.

SUNSHINE STATE

The second active weekend of the outdoor schedule featured a trip to the University of Florida for the Florida Relays. Grace Claxton, in her first meet after World Indoor Championships, placed fourth in the 400m hurdles, breaking her own school record with a mark of 57.59. Myles Banfield placed eighth in the 400m in 46.93, qualifying for World Junior Championships. Phillip Udeogu recorded his first mark over 200’ in the javelin with a throw of 202-00.00. The teams also had the opportunity to run some non-traditional relays, with the men running in the 4x200m and the women running a 4x100m shuttle hurdle relay.

SUNSHINE STATE

The Great Danes’ outdoor season began with concurrent meets over Spring Break in South Carolina and Puerto Rico. Hoping to utilize the warmer climate and the last remnants of indoor championship season fitness, the men and women came through with a handful of noteworthy performances. The highlight was Robert Harris III, who placed fourth in the 100m in South Carolina, setting a new school record of 10.59.

INDOOR WORLDS

Grace Claxton was UAlbany’s sole representative at the IAAF World Indoor Championships in Portland, Oregon, where she competed as a member of the Puerto Rican national team. She ultimately placed 11th overall in the 400m dash with a time of 53.67.

INDOOR NATIONALS

The Great Danes had four student-athletes qualify for USATF Indoor Championships, where they competed for a berth on the Team USA roster for Indoor World Championships. Taariq Jones (400m), Jordan Crump-King (TJ), Jonathan Eustache (WT), and Chinwe Igwe (WT) each earned top-16 finishes in their respective events.

IC4A/ECAC INDOOR

The Great Dane men and women each finished second in the team standings at IC4A and ECAC Indoor Championships, respectively. The men’s 65 points were one behind team champion Hampton, and the women’s 48.5 points were the most in program history at this meet. It was the women’s second consecutive year placing second overall. For the men, Taariq Jones placed second in the 400m, setting a personal-best and indoor school record of 46.79. Jonathan Eustache improved upon his own indoor school record in the weight throw with a mark of 67-06.00. Ma

LAST CHANCE

The Great Danes made their final trip of the season to the Ocean Breeze Complex, where a small contingent of student-athletes competed in the Fastrack Last Chance Meet. Taking advantage of the meet’s namesake, the Great Danes earned three additional qualifying berths into IC4A championships in their final opportunity to do so.

CHAMPIONS AGAIN

The men won their 11th consecutive America East Indoor title, while the women won their fourth straight, and sixth of the last seven. The men claimed victory in five events, and the women won seven, behind Chinwe Igwe’s championship performance in the women’s weight throw of 63-04.00. Women’s individual honors went to Igwe for Outstanding Field, and Grace Claxton for Outstanding Track. On the men’s side, Osiris Nicholson was named Outstanding Rookie. Finally, the UAlbany coaching staff was recognized as Staff of the Year for both the men and the women.

FINAL PREPARATIONS

The final week before conference championships saw the Great Danes bring a small contingent of competitors back to the Ocean Breeze Complex for the Fastrack National Invite. The goal for the meet was to satisfy or improve upon conference and IC4A/ECAC qualifying marks. Additionally, the men’s 4x400m team, whose 3:11.26 is the fastest UAlbany indoor time since at least 2010, took a shot at running 3:09 or faster, but encountered some unfortunate luck during the race that derailed their attempt. The bulk of the roster enjoyed a weekend off to rest and recuperate before conference championships.

EASING BACK

The Villanova Invitational marked the first of four consecutive meets the Great Danes would have at the Ocean Breeze Complex. In the past this weekend was designated for the Collegiate Invitational (changed last year to the Armory Track Invitational). This year, however, after competing in a high-intensity meet at Penn State one week earlier, the coaching staff felt a quicker, lower-intensity meet was in order. Additionally, the Great Danes were exposed to competition from teams they normally do not see, such as Delaware, Monmouth, Princeton, and Temple. The men and women each placed second overall behind the University of Pennsylvania.

THE LION’S DEN

The Great Danes saw arguably their strongest competition at the Penn State National Invitational, a meet which features regular and invitational sections in most events and draws competitors from schools like Stanford, Georgetown, Villanova, and Syracuse. The high level of competition resulted in a veritable assault on UAlbany’s record books, with 11 all-time top 10 performances between the men and the women.

Meet Notes

WELCOME BACK

After a year off and a change in venue, the UAlbany track & field program hosted the 13th Great Dane Classic at the new Ocean Breeze Complex in Staten Island, N.Y. It is the same venue that will host the America East Indoor Championships in February. The Classic spent its previous 12 iterations at the Armroy in New York City. The women finished third in the team standings while the men finished fifth. During the course of the meet, the Great Danes recorded 19 IC4A and ECAC qualifying marks.

New Beginnings

The men and women each placed second at Cornell's Upstate Challenge, a meet which features competition between eight New York State Institutions. It is the only time the Great Danes will run on a flat 200m track during the season, a competitive disadvantage that is accounted for in NCAA conversion factors. Junior Jonathan Eustache set the first school record of the season, winning the men's weight throw with a mark of 66-11.50, surpassing the previous record of 65-06.25 set in 2011 by Wilfredo de Jesus Elias. In total, the men won nine events, including a clean sweep of the sprint events between the 60m and the 500m, as well as the 4x400m relay. The women’s team recorded victories in four events.
