Quick Facts:

- The Tigers advanced to the NCAA tournament in 1997-98 for the first time in school history after winning their first ever ECAC championship with a double-overtime victory over Clarkson at Lake Placid, N.Y. The Tigers made their second visit in 2007-08 when Princeton won the ECAC title over Harvard in Albany, N.Y. Princeton's third visit came in the 2008-09 season when the team earned its first-ever at-large bid to the tournament.
- Princeton set a school record 22 wins in the 2008-09 season. The Tigers finished third in the ECAC regular season standings and advanced to the ECAC Championship weekend for the second straight season. The Tigers also received an at-large berth to the NCAA tournament.
- Princeton set a then school record for wins (21) on its run to the ECAC Championship and NCAA Tournament in 2007-08. Princeton won 17 games in the regular season and four in the postseason as it advanced to its fifth ECAC Final Four and its first in 10 years.
- Princeton set a then school record for overall wins (20) in 1998-99. Princeton hosted its first ECAC quarterfinal series, defeating Cornell three points to one. Princeton advanced to the ECAC Final Four for the third consecutive season and the fourth time in five years.
- Baker Rink, Princeton's home arena, is named after Hobart A.H. Baker '14, who was considered the greatest collegiate hockey player of his time. He also was a standout football player at Old Nassau where he captained the team his senior year. A captain and commander of the 141st Aero Squadron, American Expeditionary Forces, Baker died in Toul, France making "one last flight," shortly after the end of the first World War. He was testing a newly repaired plane just an hour after receiving his demobilization orders. The award given annually to the best collegiate hockey player is called the Hobey Baker Memorial Award.

- Three Princetonians played on Olympic medal-winning teams for the United States. Gerard Hallock '26 and Robert Livingston '31 were silver medalists on the 1932 squad and Frederick Kammer '34 earned a bronze in 1936.
  - On Jan. 17, 1993, Andre Faust '92 became the first Princeton graduate to score a goal in a National Hockey League game when he connected against the Detroit Red Wings. Faust, who had been called up to the Philadelphia Flyers the night before, scored on his first career shot. Faust's Princeton roommate, Mike McKee '92, made the jump in November of 1993 to Quebec. Only three other Princeton skaters have made it to the NHL. Ed Lee '84 played in one game for Quebec during the 1984-85 season, and Syl Apps '70, who left Princeton following one season of freshman hockey, enjoyed a 10-year NHL career. Four Tigers spent time in the NHL during the 2008-09 season: Jeff Halpern '99 (Tampa Bay Lightning) George Parros '03 (Anaheim Ducks), Darroll Powe '07 (Philadelphia Flyers) and Kevin Westgarth '07 (Los Angeles Kings). Parros became the first Princetonian to have his name on the Stanley Cup when Anaheim won the league championship in 2007.
  - Lee Jubinville '09 became Princeton's first-ever candidate for the Hobey Baker Award when he was a Top-10 candidate in 2008. The Hobey Baker Award is named after the legendary Princeton hockey player who died testing a repaired aircraft at the end of World War I, recognizes strength of character both on and off the ice. A season later, Zane Kalemba '10 became Princeton's second Top-10 candidate.
