HEAD COACH DAVID ELDREDGE

David Eldredge begins his seventh season as the head coach for Southern Utah University. During his time at SUU, Eldredge has produced four teams that have won 26 or more games including the 2008 team that set a school-record with 31 wins. Eldredge has taken three Thunderbird teams to the Summit League Tournament including the 2008 team that reached the championship game. Eldredge continued the success in 2009, leading SUU to its highest overall winning percentage in program-history along with the school's highest ever winning percentage in conference play with a 16-7 (.696) mark.

During his six seasons, Eldredge has had 28 players earn All-Conference accolades including 11 first-team selections and three Thunderbirds receive Freshmen All-American honors, including catcher Taylor Shaw last season, infielder Bo Cuthbertson in 2009 and first baseman Bucky Aona in 2007. He has also had eight players earn spots on the All-Tournament team in the program's three conference tournament appearances (2005, 2008-09).

Southern Utah's baseball record books have also been rewritten under Eldredge's tenure as new school records have been set in at bats, hits, stolen bases, slugging percentage, fielding percentage, double plays, shutouts, saves, innings pitched and strikeouts. Individual records have also fallen as Eldredge's recruits have set new career standards in games played, at bats, runs, hits, RBI, doubles, home runs, total bases, games pitched and saves.

Eldredge has coached five players selected in the top-five rounds of the Major League amateur draft and he was the college coach of former New York Met outfielder Benny Agbayani. Most recently, former Thunderbird Keli'i Zablan signed a minor league contract with the Seattle Mariners.

Eldredge has 20 years of collegiate coaching experience behind him, serving a four-year stint as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Brigham Young prior to coming to SUU. At BYU, Eldredge helped lead the Cougars to a Mountain West regular season title in 2001, MWC tournament championships in 2001 and 2002 and two berths into the NCAA regionals. Eldredge also held a similar post at Loyola Marymount from 1996-98, where he was instrumental in bringing in the nation's 16th-best recruiting class as rated by Collegiate Baseball. He was on the bench as the Lions won the West Coast Conference title and earned an NCAA tournament berth in 1998.

Eldredge began his collegiate coaching career at Hawaii Pacific in Honolulu from 1989-95, where he was a five-time District 29 Coach of the Year honoree in guiding the Sea Warriors to five district championships and five regional berths, while his 1991 club finished the season ranked fourth in the nation.

Eldredge was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds in 1979 and was a prep all-American at Punahou High. Eldredge elected to play collegiately at BYU from 1980-83, where he was an All-Western Athletic Conference selection and was voted team captain of the Cougars' top-ranked club in 1983.

Following his playing career at BYU, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Honolulu's Punahou High School where he coached from 1985-89 and again in 1996. While at Punahou, Eldredge served as pitching coach and helped lead the program to three league championships, four state tournament appearances and one state title. He has also been active in numerous youth baseball programs and has won national titles at the Babe Ruth and AAU levels.
