OPENING TIP

• Two of the hottest teams in the Atlantic 10 Conference battle this afternoon as the Saint Louis Billikens welcome the Saint Joseph's Hawks to Chaifetz Arena.

• The Billikens have won four straight, including an 81-60 victory at UMass Wednesday night. The Hawks, who beat Duquesne 60-58 Wednesday night, have won three straight and seven of eight. Their only loss in that stretch was in overtime at A-10 leader Dayton.

• In A-10 games only, Saint Louis tops the conference in scoring offense (75.1 ppg); Saint Joseph's leads in scoring defense (55.4 ppg). Additionally, the Billikens are the league's most prolific 3-point team, pouring in 8.2 triples per game; the Hawks lead the A-10 in 3-point field goal percentage defense (.189), allowing only 23 treys in 10 conference games.

• The teams are among the league leaders in 3-point field goal shooting for all games. Saint Louis is second at 35.7 percent, followed by Saint Joseph's in third at 35.1 percent.

• Both teams also take good care of the ball. In all games, Saint Louis leads the A-10 in fewest turnovers (13.0 tpg), while Saint Joseph's is second (13.2 tpg).

• The Bills have heated up from beyond the arc in the last three games, shooting 45 percent (30-of-67). At UMass, SLU reached double figures in treys (12) for a seventh time this year.

• Jordyn Frantz and Jenny Vliet have sparked SLU's recent 3-point success. Frantz, who leads the A-10 (all games) at 43.1 percent, is 11-of-18 (.611) over the last three games. Vliet is 8-of-13 (.615) in the last two contests. Both sank four triples in each of the last two games.

• In its current winning streak, Saint Louis is 110-of-232 (.474) from the field overall while holding opponents to 81-of-236 (.343). The opponents' shooting numbers include just 16-of-76 (.211) from beyond the arc.

• With a scoring average of 74.7 points, the Billikens have a chance to break the school record of 74.0 points (1979-80). The Bills lead No. 2 Dayton (67.2 ppg) by 7.5 ppg in all games and by 8.5 ppg (75.1 to 66.6) in A-10 games only.

• Saint Louis has a remarkably high assist rate over the last three games, recording an assist on 67 of 82 field goals (82 percent).

SLU PURSUING ANOTHER 3-POINT RECORD

•The Billikens set a school record for 3-point field goals in each of the last two seasons and are on pace to make it three years in a row.

•Last year's team finished with 205 treys, or 6.03 per game. Through 23 games this year, Saint Louis' average is 7.30.

•If they continue at their current pace, the Billikens would break the school record in the final regular-season game.

NOT MANY NAILBITERS THIS SEASON

•Last year, Saint Louis played 16 games – almost half of its 34-game total – that were decided by a single-digit margin, including three WNIT games in which the combined victory margin was seven points.

•So far, this season has been drastically different. The Billikens have played just four games that were decided by fewer than 10 points.

BILLIKENS PRODUCE HISTORIC DEFENSIVE STREAK

•When SLU held George Mason, VCU and St. Bonaventure to 50, 48 and 49 points, respectively, it was the first time in program history the Billikens yielded 50 or fewer points to three consecutive conference opponents.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES A FREQUENT OCCURRENCE

•Saint Louis produced at least one double-double in 13 of its first 23 games. The Billikens have 15 total double-doubles this season.

•SLU has registered two double-doubles twice. Sadie Stipanovich and Jackie Kempf accomplished the feat vs. Loyola Marymount and Washington State.

BILLIKENS GO ON TORRID 3-POINT SHOOTING RUN

•Earlier this season, the Billikens enjoyed a four-game stretch in which they made at least 10 3-point field goals in each contest.

•SLU was 10-of-24 vs. Missouri, 11-of-20 vs. Lipscomb, 12-of-25 vs. Davidson and 12-of-27 vs. George Mason in successive outings. The 12 treys vs. Davidson and George Mason are one shy of the school record.

PILING UP THE POINTS

•The Billikens have scored in the 80s or higher eight times already this season after doing so just five times all of last year.

•SLU scored 70 or more points 19 times during the 2015-16 season. With six games remaining in the 2016-17 regular season, the Bills have scored in the 70s or higher in 13 games.

SAINT LOUIS RECORD BOOK ASSAULTED AT DAVIDSON

•SLU enjoyed a record-setting day in a 106-69 victory at Davidson.

•The Billikens established school marks for points, field goals (43), field goal percentage (43-of-71, .606) and assists (33).

BILLIKENS OWN SEVERAL A-10 SEASON BESTS

•The Billikens have the A-10's best performance in six categories.

•SLU's 106 points, 43 field goals made, .606 field goal percentage (43-of-71) and 33 assists vs. Davidson are league highs, as are the Bills' 37 free throw attempts vs. Loyola Marymount and 45-point victory margin vs. Lipscomb.

•The Billikens also own the A-10's second-best performance in four of those categories – field goal percentage (30-of-50, .600 vs. Morgan State), assists (26 vs. UMass and George Mason), free throw attempts (36 vs. Lipscomb) and victory margin (41 vs. SIUE). In addition, SLU's 28 free throws made vs. Loyola Marymount are No. 2 in the league.

•Jackie Kempf's 15 free throws made vs. Loyola Marymount are the most by an A-10 player this season.

BILLIKENS CONVERTING SECOND-HALF FREE THROWS

•Coming off a year in which they shot a school-record 76.3 percent from the free throw line, the Billikens are successful at the stripe again this season with a 74.6-percent success rate.

•This year's performance is due largely to strong second-half foul shooting. SLU is connecting on just 69.9 percent (109-of-156) in the first half but improves to 77.4 percent (205-of-265) in the second half.

SAINT LOUIS GAME NOTES • Saint Joseph's

BILLIKENS ROUTINELY HAVE MORE "A's" THAN "TO's"

- Saint Louis is the A-10 leader and the fourth-best team in the nation in assist-turnover ratio (1.46:1).
- The Billikens registered more assists than turnovers in 16 of their first 23 games.
- SLU tallied 20 or more assists in 11 of the first 23 games, including a school-record 33 vs. Davidson. In the last two outings, the Billikens recorded 24 assists vs. Fordham and 26 vs. UMass.
- The Billikens' six guards combined for 354 assists and just 192 turnovers in the first 23 games, a 1.84:1 ratio.
- Jenny Vliet doesn't have enough assists to qualify for the A-10 overall or national assist-turnover ratio rankings, but she leads the team with a 3.44:1 mark (62 assists, 18 turnovers).
- SLU has six games with a single-digit turnover total – seven vs. George Mason; eight vs. Massachusetts, Southeast Missouri State and Loyola Marymount; and nine vs. St. Bonaventure and Bradley.
- Since committing 19 miscues in the season opener at UC Irvine, the Billikens are averaging just 12.8 turnovers.

SPREADING THE WEALTH ON THE BOARDS

- Through the first 23 games, five different Billikens have led the team or tied for the team lead in rebounding.
- Sadie Stipanovich has been SLU's top rebounder 12 times, followed by Olivia Jakubicek in eight games. Jenny Vliet has led the Billikens twice, while Maddison Gits and Tara Dusharm have led the team once apiece.

BIG VICTORY MARGINS IN EARLY SEASON

- Each of Saint Louis' first eight games was decided by a double-digit margin. That hadn't happened since 1985-86 when the Billikens' first 14 contests had a spread of 10 or more points, a school record.
- The eight-game streak to begin a season was the third longest in program history.

STARTING FIVE STEADY AGAIN

- The Billikens put the same starting five on the floor in all 34 games of the 2015-16 campaign.
- So far this season, head coach Lisa Stone is following the same path. Saint Louis' starting five – including Sadie Stipanovich, Jackie Kempf and Jenny Vliet, all of whom started every game last year – has been the same in all 23 contests this season.
- Olivia Jakubicek and Jordyn Frantz replaced graduates Jamesia Price and Denisha Womack in the starting lineup.
- Saint Louis' five starters are the team's top five scorers. It's believed that the Billikens are one of only three Division I teams (San Jose State, Syracuse) to both start the same five in every game and have those players occupy the team's top five scoring positions.

BILLIKENS COLLECTING WEEKLY AWARDS

- Jackie Kempf earned Atlantic 10 Conference Player of the Week accolades from the league office Nov. 14 and Jan. 30.
- The junior point guard was named College Sports Madness A-10 Player of the Week Nov. 14 and Nov. 21.
- Kempf was selected national Jesuit Player of the Week by Jesuit Basketball Spotlight Nov. 21 and Jan. 30.
- Sadie Stipanovich was tabbed A-10 Player of the Week by the league office Dec. 19.
- The senior center was named co-Player of the Week by the league office and Player of the Week by College Sports Madness Jan. 2.

- Saint Louis' leading rebounder hauled in at least 10 boards in 14 of the first 23 contests.
- In nine of the first 23 games, the Billikens' leading scorer netted at least 20 points.

TAKING IT ONE QUARTER AT A TIME

- SLU has outscored its opponent in 61 of 92 quarters this season.
- The Billikens' highest-scoring quarter was the fourth stanza vs. Missouri, when they put up 34 points. SLU scored 32 points in the second and third quarters at Davidson.
- Saint Louis has tallied 20 or more points in 40 of 92 quarters.
- The Billikens scored at least 20 points in all four quarters vs. Loyola Marymount and Davidson.
- SLU has held its opponent to fewer than 10 points in a quarter 14 times, including at least once in five of the last nine games. The Billikens limited Rhode Island to nine points in the third quarter and eight in the fourth.

40-POINT HALVES

- Saint Louis has scored 40 or more points in 17 of 46 halves.
- The Billikens' highest-scoring half was a 54-point output in the first half vs. Davidson. SLU tallied 52 points in the second halves of the Missouri and Davidson games and 50 in the first half vs. SIUE.

SLU ACCOMPLISHES RARE SCORING FEAT

- Saint Louis scored 90 points in consecutive games vs. Loyola Marymount (90-76) and SIUE (90-49), becoming only the second Billiken team to reach 90 in two straight contests.
- The 2006-07 Billikens were the first SLU team to pull off the feat, topping St. Bonaventure 92-86 and Fordham 90-70 in consecutive games.

KEMPH TIES FREE THROW MARKS

- Jackie Kempf was 15-of-18 from the foul line at Loyola Marymount, equaling SLU single-game records for makes and attempts.
- The 15 FTM tied the mark set by Jamesia Price vs. VCU two years ago. The 18 FTA matched the record set by Sadie Stipanovich vs. Dayton, also two years ago.

20-20 VISION

- Prior to this season, the last time two Saint Louis players scored 20 or more points in the same game occurred three years ago when Erin Nelson and Denisha Womack tallied 21 points apiece vs. Dayton.
- SLU has accomplished the feat three times in 2016-17. In the first two games this season, Jackie Kempf and Jordyn Frantz scored 20 points apiece vs. UC Irvine, while Kempf netted 25 and Sadie Stipanovich posted 20 vs. Loyola Marymount.
- Most recently, Stipanovich tallied 33 and Kempf added 20 vs. Davidson.

TWO ROAD WINS TO OPEN THE SEASON A RARITY

- For only a third time in program history, Saint Louis started a season 2-0 when its first two games were played on the road. The only other times that happened were in the 1980-81 and 1983-84 seasons.

BILLIKENS FAVORITES FOR FIRST TIME

- Saint Louis is the Atlantic 10 Conference coaches' preseason favorite to win the conference championship. It's the first time the Billikens have been selected to capture a league title.
- SLU received nine of 14 first-place votes and collected 191 points.
- Duquesne garnered three first-place votes and tied Dayton for second place with 166 points, while George Washington snared two first-place votes and finished fourth with 157 points. SLU, Duquesne and GW tied for last year's regular-season title with 13-3 league records.
- VCU (148 points) was fifth, with Fordham (117) and Richmond (108) rounding out the top half of the 14-team league.
- Saint Joseph's (94) was eighth, followed by Rhode Island (78), St. Bonaventure (68), George Mason (64), La Salle (49), Davidson (42) and Massachusetts (22).
- In addition to the A-10 coaches' prediction, College Sports Madness picked the Billikens to win the A-10 crown and projected them as a No. 10 seed in the NCAA Championship.

HEAD COACH LISA STONE

- Formally introduced as Saint Louis' seventh head women's basketball coach on May 4, 2012.
- Began the 2016-17 season (her 31st as a head coach) with a 568-298 record, including a 65-61 mark in her first four campaigns at SLU.
- Career record also includes eight seasons at Wisconsin (128-119), three seasons at Drake (64-27), 12 seasons at Wisconsin-Eau Claire (277-59) and three seasons at Cornell (Iowa) (34-32).
- Named A-10 Coach of the Year and College Sports Madness High Major National Coach of the Year in 2016. Has earned eight conference Coach of the Year awards during her career.
- Nineteen of her teams have competed in postseason play (14 NCAA tournaments, five WNIT appearances). Guided the 1996-97 and 1993-94 Wisconsin-Eau Claire teams to second place and third place, respectively, in the NCAA Division III Championship. Led Drake to the NCAA round of 16 in 2001-02 and Wisconsin to a WNIT runner-up finish in 2006-07.

Lisa Stone arrived at Saint Louis University in May 2012 with a vision to build Billiken women's basketball into a championship-caliber program.

Four years later, her vision came into clear focus.

The 2015-16 Billikens enjoyed a breakthrough season in Stone's fourth year at the helm. Saint Louis tied for the Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season championship – the first league title in team history – reached the A-10 Championship semifinals for the first time, and advanced to the third round of the WNIT as the A-10's automatic qualifier.

The Billikens (26-8, 13-3 A-10) set program records for total wins, conference wins, overall winning percentage, conference winning percentage, conference winning streak, home wins and road wins, and they tied the team record for best start to a season. One of SLU's wins was an 84-81 triumph over No. 23 Duquesne, giving the Billikens a victory over a nationally ranked opponent for a second straight season.

Stone completed the 2015-16 season, her 30th as a collegiate head coach, with a 568-298 career record and a 65-61 mark at SLU. She was rewarded for the Billikens' success by being named A-10 Coach of the Year and College Sports Madness High Major National Coach of the Year, becoming the first Saint Louis women's basketball coach to earn Coach of the Year plaudits.

Sophomore point guard Jackie Kempf became the first Billiken women's basketball player to earn All-America recognition (Associated Press honorable mention). Kempf also was selected A-10 co-Player of the Year and garnered a first-team nod on the College Sports Madness All-High Major Team. Junior center Sadie Stipanovich and senior guard Jamesia Price landed on the All-Conference third team and the A-10 All-Defensive team, respectively, for a second consecutive year.

Saint Louis' success in 2015-16 had its foundation in all facets of the game. The Billikens averaged 70.3 points – the first time in nine seasons SLU has topped the 70-point mark – set school marks for 3-point field goals (205) and assists (573) for a second consecutive year, and shot a school-record 76.3 percent from the free throw line. Saint Louis allowed 61.3 points per game, almost four fewer than the previous season, and collected a school-record 1,304 rebounds. The Billikens finished among the top 30 teams in the nation in assists, assist-turnover ratio, free throw percentage, free throws made and 3-point field goal percentage defense.

Winning close games also was a hallmark of last year's team. The Bills were 7-2 in contests decided by six or fewer points, including victories of one point and four points in the WNIT.

Stone coaches a group of young women who also are accomplished students. The Billikens have placed among the top 15 on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll the past two seasons, finishing 15th (3.503 GPA) in 2015-16 and a program-best sixth (3.564 GPA) in 2014-15.

The Billikens' success on the court translated into unprecedented interest in the program. Saint Louis drew a school-record 9,985 fans to its "Billikens Pink Out" game, attracted 2,000 or more spectators on three other dates, and led the A-10 in average attendance for conference games. This came on the heels of a 2014-15 season that saw SLU experience the 10th-largest attendance increase in NCAA Division I women's basketball.

Stone's team showed signs of what was to come during the 2014-15 season. Saint Louis won 15 games – at the time, the most for the Billikens in 12 seasons – and defeated No. 20 George Washington for the program's first victory over a ranked opponent since 2002-03. The win over the Colonials, who came into the game with a 10-0 league record, was SLU's second of the season when facing an undefeated A-10 leader. Earlier, the Billikens handed a 6-0 Fordham team its first conference loss of the year.

Under Stone's guidance, Saint Louis produced its first All-Conference player (Stipanovich, third team) since 2009-10, its first-ever A-10 All-Defensive honoree (Price) and an A-10 All-Rookie selection (Kempf) for a second consecutive season.

A more productive offense was a key component of the 2014-15 Billikens' success. SLU increased its scoring average from 62.1 in 2013-14 to 65.7; set school records for 3-point field goals and assists; led the A-10 in assists and assist-turnover ratio and finished 13th and 42nd, respectively, in the nation in those categories; and placed 39th nationally in free throw percentage.

The 2013-14 Billikens rebounded to win seven of their last 12 games following a tough start. Saint Louis posted a solid 9-5 record at Chaifetz Arena, its best home mark in 11 years, and won three consecutive conference road games for the first time in program history. The Bills increased their scoring average by 8.1 points over the 2012-13 season.

Saint Louis' 12-19 record in Stone's first campaign belied the team's competitiveness as nine of the Billikens' losses, including four in A-10 play, were by seven or fewer points. Defense was the team's calling card, with SLU allowing an average of fewer than 60 points per game (57.9) for the first time since the 1985-86 season. The Billikens held 11 opponents to fewer than 50 points, a school record; six of those 11 opponents were A-10 foes.

Saint Louis qualified for the A-10 Championship as the No. 11 seed and upset No. 6 Butler in the first round. In addition, the Billikens won six road games, twice as many as the previous two seasons combined. It was the first time since the 1985-86 season that SLU recorded six road victories.

HEAD COACH LISA STONE

Prior to her arrival at SLU, Stone served eight seasons (2003-11) in charge at Wisconsin. She began her head-coaching career with a three-year stint at Cornell (Iowa) College, spent 12 seasons at Wisconsin-Eau Claire and had a three-year tenure at Drake.

Under Stone's guidance, SLU produced its first All-Conference player (Stipanovich, third team) since 2009-10, its first-ever A-10 All-Defensive honoree (Price) and an A-10 All-Rookie selection (Kemph) for a second straight season.

"We are thrilled to have Lisa and her family join the Saint Louis University community," Director of Athletics Chris May said upon Stone's hiring. "Her successful career, which includes a commitment to academic success and winning at every level, speaks for itself.

"It is an exciting time as we welcome Lisa to Saint Louis to lead the women's basketball program in educating student-athletes, competing for titles and building community," May said. "Lisa's arrival, combined with SLU's educational excellence, state-of-the-art facilities in Chaifetz Arena, the competitive A-10 and a fertile recruiting base, makes SLU women's basketball poised for success."

"I am excited to be a part of the Billiken family," Stone said. "Saint Louis University has an outstanding commitment to excellence, and I am thrilled to be part of an institution that strongly encourages its student-athletes to lead, learn and serve. The University offers academic prestige, outstanding facilities and a beautiful campus, plus an opportunity to compete in a very strong Atlantic 10 Conference."

Stone guided Wisconsin to five postseason appearances, two 20-win campaigns and a 128-119 record that included a 95-68 mark in her final five seasons. In her fourth year (2006-07), the Badgers won a school-record 23 games (23-13) and finished second in the WNIT.

Following WNIT appearances the next two seasons, UW's 2009-10 team posted a 21-11 record, tied for third in the Big Ten Conference and earned an NCAA Tournament bid. Stone was rewarded by being named Big Ten Coach of the Year. The Badgers again tied for third in the league in 2010-11 and played in the WNIT.

Wisconsin also excelled academically with Stone at the helm. Twenty-one players combined to earn 42 Academic All-Big Ten nods during her tenure.

Stone's 64-27 record at Drake included a 42-12 Missouri Valley Conference ledger. She led the Bulldogs to a 23-7 record, an MVC regular-season co-championship and an NCAA Tournament berth in her first season (2000-01). Stone, whose 23 victories were the most by a first-year MVC women's basketball coach, was tabbed the league's Coach of the Year. The following season, Stone's team went 25-8, achieved a No. 20 national ranking and reached the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16.

The Drake program also flourished in the classroom under Stone's leadership. The 2000-01 Bulldogs were ranked sixth on the WBCA Academic Top 25 Honor Roll, and the 2001-02 team garnered a No. 15 ranking on the prestigious list.

At NCAA Division III Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Stone turned around a program that had registered just one winning record prior to her arrival. Her teams tallied a 277-59 mark (159-33 in conference play), turned in 11 20-win seasons, reached the NCAA Tournament 11 times and captured six league crowns.

Stone's 1996-97 squad was the national runner-up, and her 1993-94 team finished third in the nation. She was chosen the 1997 WBCA Division III National Coach of the Year, and in 2000 she was named D3 News/Molten Division III National Coach of the Year as the Blugolds posted a 28-1 record. A five-time Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Stone was inducted into the UW-Eau Claire Blugold Hall of Fame in 2006.

Stone's accomplishments at UW-Eau Claire led to her selection to the inaugural class of the WIAC Hall of Fame. Additionally, she was named the WIAC Women's Basketball All-Time Co-Coach.

When Stone was named head coach at Division III Cornell College at age 22 in 1985, she was the nation's youngest head basketball coach at a four-year institution. She collected a 34-32 record at Cornell and led the Rams to the Midwest Conference's Southern Division title in each of her three years. Stone also served as the Rams' head softball coach.

In addition to her collegiate coaching experience, Stone was a head coach in the 2001 WBCA All-Star Game as well as an assistant for gold-medal-winning Team USA at the 2002 World Championships for Young Women Qualifying Tournament in Brazil.

Stone holds a bachelor's degree in physical education (1984) and a master's degree in athletic administration (1986), both from the University of Iowa. A four-year standout at point guard under legendary head coach C. Vivian Stringer, she is 29th in points (1,129), tied for 10th in steals (177) and 13th in assists (322) on the Iowa career charts. Stone also owns a share of the Hawkeyes' record for steals in a game (nine).

Stone was a three-time team captain and a two-time Hawkeye Most Valuable Player. As a senior, she won the Big Ten Medal of Honor as one of the top scholar-athletes in the conference and also captured the Iowa Student-Athlete of the Year award.

A native of Oregon, Wis., Stone earned four letters each in basketball, tennis and track and field during her high school career. She helped lead Oregon to the Wisconsin Class A state basketball tournament in 1979 and 1980, and she earned first-team All-State honors as a senior and second-team recognition as a junior.

Stone and her husband, Ed, a CPA, are the parents of a daughter, Allison, and a son, Tyler. Allie is a 2015 graduate of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, where she was an All-Conference soccer player. Tyler is a senior at SLU and serves the Billikens as a team manager.

WHAT'S A BILLIKEN?

The Billiken was born Oct. 8, 1908, when Kansas City art teacher and illustrator Florence Pretz patented a design for an elflike creature with pixie ears, a mischievous smile and a tuft of hair on his pointed head. Reportedly, the image came to her in a dream.

Although it didn't appear on the actual patent, some believe Pretz found the Billiken name in a fanciful work entitled, "Mr. Moon: A Song of the Little People," by Canadian poets Bliss Carman and Richard Hovey.

Within a short time, Pretz sold her patented image to the Billiken Company of Chicago. Initially manufactured as a bank and statuette, and later as a doll, this good luck charm soon became a national craze. By 1911, the Billiken's likeness adorned everything from marshmallow candies to hood ornaments.

In his heyday, the Billiken enjoyed worldwide fame. Artisans in Alaska began carving his image into ivory, and in Japan, he appeared in shrines, amusement parks and even a movie.

Like many other fads, the Billiken might have faded into obscurity if it were not for Saint Louis University law student John Bender, who also happened to be the coach of SLU's football team during the height of Billikenmania.

One story claims that nearby drugstore owner Billy Gunn called Bender a Billiken when the coach walked into his establishment one day. Supposedly, legendary sportswriter William O'Connor was within earshot of the remark and took up the moniker not only for Bender but also for SLU's sports teams.

Another tale claims O'Connor himself dubbed the coach a Billiken after a particularly good practice left Bender beaming with a big smile. After practice, Bender's fellow law student Charles Z. McNamara, a local cartoonist, sketched Bender as a Billiken, posted it in Gunn's drugstore window and tabbed the football team "Bender's Billikens."

Yet another yarn reports that the druggist asked McNamara to decorate his store window the night before a homecoming game. Supposedly, McNamara drew a Billiken, a popular good luck charm, causing one of his fellow students to exclaim, "That looks like coach Bender!"

Whatever the case, O'Connor is generally credited for popularizing the name throughout the city, but one fact flies in the face of this legend and lore. O'Connor did not join the St. Louis Post-Dispatch until Nov. 26, 1911, one full month after the newspaper first mentioned "Bender's Billikens."

Regardless of how the story is told or whether his mysterious origins are ever finally resolved, the Billiken remains a good luck charm for Saint Louis University's sports teams and always brings smiles to the faces of SLU fans. Legend has it that the Billiken has three kinds of luck – good, better and best. Buying a Billiken gives the buyer good luck. To have one given to you is better luck. The best luck comes if the Billiken is stolen.
