LOBO SKIING - TEAM NOTES

About the 2013-14 Lobos

The Lobos picked up a team title, its first since 2011, winning the Jade Enterprises/Lobo Invitational. UNM never finished lower than third in any single meet during the season, and had its best national finish since 2009 with a third place NCAA showing.

The Lobos picked up plenty of honors along with way with nine athletes earning 11 All-America honors, nine All-RMISA honors, six RMISA skiers of the Week, the RMISA Men's Alpine MVP, the RMISA Women's Nordic Athlete of the Year, and a national champion in women's Nordic freestyle.

Sever Rus Wins National Title

All season long race results have misspelled the name of Eva Sever Rus (combining her two last names, which belong to her mom and dad, into Sevrerus), but there was no mistaking her on March 8 when she won the 27th individual NCAA National Title at UNM.

Sevrerus, who won the title by 1.8 seconds over the 15K course, is New Mexico's 17th skiing national champion, and the 10th on the women's side. She is the first freestyle national champion since Ivana Radlova in 1993, and the first Nordic national champion since Kristina Strandberg in 2000, who won in Classical.

The win was one of three on the season for Sever Rus, who also picked up wins at the Colorado Invitation (15K FS) and the RMISA/ NCAA West Region championships.

For Sever Rus, she ended her season with 10 podium finishes in her final 11 races, and the one non-third place finish was a fourth place finish on her home track in the 10K FS at the Jade Enterprises/Lobo Invitational.

After the Fact, but Nikander is U.S. Open Champion

When Aku Nikander opened the season with a win in the 30K FS at the Pat Miller Invitational in Utah, it showed that he was pretty tough in the longer races.

He proved that again after the season, when he traveled to Alaska for the U.S. Open championships, winning the 50K Freestyle in just under 2 1/2 hours. While not an official collegiate win for Nikander, it capped off a brilliant first season with the Lobos where he recorded nine top 10 finishes, including five in the freestyle out of six races.

Three Lobos Repeat as All-Americans

Getting nine skiers to earn 11 All-America honors is a neat trick, especially when only getting nine All-Conference nods. However, UNM had three skiers repeat All-American performances from 2013.

Mats Reseland, who was a Second Team All-American in the 20K FS a year ago, stepped it up in his senior year to earn First Team honors in the same discipline. It was his third All-America honor in his sparkling career at UNM. Mateja Robnik, who earned Second Team All-America in the slalom last year, did so again in 2014.

The only non-repeater was Joonas Rasanen, who won the 2013 Slalom national title, but didn't make the top 10 this season.

UNM had six others earn All-America honors in Eva Sever Rus (5K CL, 15K FS), Armin Triendl (GS), Sean Horner (SL, GS); Aku Nikander (10K CL); Aljaz Praznik (20K FS); Karoline Mykelbust (GS) and Courtney Altringer (GS).

Plenty of Individual Titles in 2013-14

The University of New Mexico saw plenty of podiums and champions in the 2013-14 season.

On the Alpine side, individual champions included Juho-Pekka Penttinen (Jade Enterprises/Lobo Invitational Slalom), Joonas Rasanen (Jade Enterprises/Lobo Invitational Slalom) and Mateja Robnik (Colorado/RMISA Qualifier Giant Slalom).

Including the three titles, UNM's Alpine squad picked up 13 podium finishes, seven on the men's side and six on the women's side.

In Nordic, Eva Sever Rus had three titles, all in the freestyle including the NCAA Regional/RMISA Meet and the NCAAs, and Aku Nikander won the Pat Miller Invitational Freestyle. Overall, the Nordic side picked up 15 podium finishes with the women taking 11 and the men taking four.

Combined, UNM had seven individual champions (four men and three women), and 28 podiums (17 women and 11 men).

Head Coach Fredrik Landstedt

Head Coach Fredrik Landstedt, himself a former Lobo Nordic skier, completed his seventh season as the head coach of the Lobo ski team and his 19th season overall as he served as a student assistant coach and assistant coach before becoming the second head coach in program history the summer of 2007. With Landstedt at the helm of the program, the Lobos have finished fourth, third, third, seventh, eighth, sixth and back to third at NCAA Championships.

During his tenure at UNM (assistant coach from 1990-91; 98-2007 and head coach from 2007-present) he has coached 45 Nordic Lobos to 72 All-American awards and four individual event Nordic team national championships, and one individual Nordic national champion. Since taking over as the head coach, Landstedt has fostered 35 Alpine All-America performers and four individual event Alpine team national championships. He has mentored three Nordic individual national champions in Kristina Strandberg (2000), Jimmy Vika (2003) and Eva Sever Rus (2014). He has been an integral part of the coaching staff for six Alpine individual national champions in Marte Dolva (2002), Jennifer Delich (2004), Malin Hemmingsson (2007, '09, '10) and Joonas Rasanen (2013).
