NO. 17/17 WISCONSIN 90, OKLAHOMA 70 DECEMBER 3, 2016 • POSTGAME NOTES

- The Sooners (5-2) fell to No. 17 Wisconsin (7-2) in their first road game of the season, 90-70, at Kohl Center in Madison, Wis. Saturday's contest was the first time during the Lon Kruger era that Oklahoma faced a ranked non-conference opponent in a true road game.
 - With the loss, Oklahoma is now 4-5 all-time against Wisconsin. The Sooners are 1-2 against the Badgers under Kruger with both losses coming away from home.
 - Sophomore guard Rashard Odomes led the Sooners with a career-high 17 points on 7-of-10 shooting. During the second half, Odomes shot 5-of-7 from the field and scored 12 points. Through seven games, Odomes is averaging 9.7 points (averaged 1.9 in 2015-16) and is shooting .560 from the field – the second highest field goal percentage on the team.
 - Freshman guard Kameron McGusty went a perfect 4-for-4 from the field to total 11 points. After averaging 3.3 points in his first three games this season, McGusty has scored 9.3 points per game in his last four outings.
 - Sophomore guard Christian James contributed 11 points on 5-of-8 shooting while junior forward Khadeem Lattin totaled nine points with seven rebounds and senior guard Jordan Woodard produced nine points and five boards.
 - OU outscored the Badgers, 40-37, in the opening half. The second half featured nine lead changes in the first nine minutes, with Oklahoma's final lead (58-57) being overtaken by Wisconsin at the 11:29 mark. The Badgers strung together a 20-2 run to separate themselves from the Sooners and lead by double figures for the final 8:32 of the game.
 - Oklahoma shot 22-of-51 (.490) from the field, marking the fifth game this season the Sooners have made over 47 percent of their field goal attempts.
 - The Sooners had one of their best performance from the free throw line this season, hitting 14 of their 17 foul shots (.824). The last time Oklahoma shot over 82 percent from the line on at least 15 attempts came against Oregon during last season's NCAA Tournament (14-of-17 on Mar. 26, 2016).
 - Oklahoma is back at the Lloyd Noble Center when it hosts in-state foe Oral Roberts on Wednesday, Dec. 7 at 7 p.m. The Sooners own a 14-2 record all-time against the Golden Eagles and have won 14 consecutive games.
 - The Sooners are 4-0 against ORU under Kruger, including 3-0 in Norman. Last season, the Sooners topped the Golden Eagle, 96-73, in a home non-conference contest.
